at 0400 on Thursday 01 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells and a few heavy showers.

Today:
Some low cloud along northern coasts at first. Otherwise, largely sunny with passing clouds bringing a risk of a sharp shower, particularly in the east. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers fade away in the evening, giving rise to a fine and sunny end to the day. Some low cloud does spread throughout the region overnight. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Start murky then generally brightening up, although some lingering clouds around coastal areas. A few showers from the late morning. Patchy mostly light rain moving in from the southwest later. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Feeling muggy with mix of sunny spells and widespread showers throughout this period, heaviest on Sunday. Risk thunder over the weekend. Longer spells of rain possible Sunday night and Monday.
